"Gone, But Not Forgotten" Star Light Remembrance Tree

December 3, 2017

"Gone, but not forgotten,
Yet we are apart,
Your spirit lives within us,
Forever in our heart."

"What the heart has once known,
it shall never forget." ~Author unknown

We will begin with the readings of the poems, then the names of those being remembered will be read. The names received after the board was printed will be read at the end.

We will conclude with a prayer.

You may linger as long as you wish when the prayer is done.

The following were submitted in memory of loved ones:

From Dawn, Jordan, & Reid Gunderson in memory of Husband and Dad Todd Gunderson—we love and miss you so much!

Speak Their Name

Someone I love has gone away
And life is not the same
The greatest gift that you can give
Is just to speak their name.

I need to hear the stories
And the tales of days gone past
I need for you to understand
These memories must last.

We cannot make more memories
Since they're no longer here
So when you speak of them to me
It's music to my ear.

This poem was submitted by Mom & Dad-Bill & Sara Hans,
in loving memory of Ethan John Hans:

A Child of Mine (God's Lent Child)

I will lend you, for a little time,
A child of mine, He said.
For you to love the while he lives,
And mourn for when he's dead.

It may be six or seven years,
or twenty-two of three.
But will you, till I call him back,
Take care of him for Me?

He'll bring his charms to gladden you,
And should his stay be brief
You'll have his lovely memories,
As solace for your grief.

I cannot promise he will stay,
Since all from earth return,
But these are lessons taught down there,
I want this child to learn.

I've looked the wide world over,
In search for teachers true.
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes,
I have selected you.

Now will you give him all your love,
Nor think the labor vain.
Nor hate me when I come again,
To take him home again?

I fancied that I heard them say,
'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!'
For all the joys Thy child shall bring,
The risk of grief we'll run.

We'll shelter him with tenderness,
We'll love him while we may,
And for the happiness we've known,
Forever grateful stay.

But should the angels call for him,
Much sooner than we've planned,
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,
And try to understand.

S/S
Sport & Mary Snyder submitted the following prayer,
who are remembering Tim & Robert Abraham, daughter Susi:

We pray:

Lord, we gather again to ask for your strength to face another Holiday Season without those whom we love so much. Some of us have been coming here for several years, some are feeling the fresh hurt of losing a loved one. We don't understand the tragedy in this world but we recognize that we need your guidance and strength. We ask that you guide us to make this world a better place and to give empathy to all whom we meet each day. We thank you, Lord, for the many wondrous blessings and miracles that have touched our lives throughout this past year. In the midst of tragedy, we recognize your outreach to us each day that blesses us and keeps us in your care. Amen.

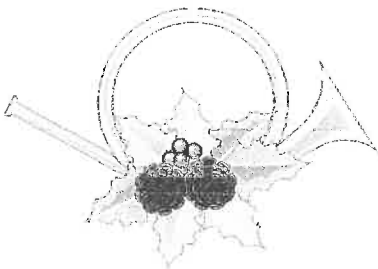

We would like to thank these families for allowing us to share their special poems & prayer with you at our event.

The Commercial Club would like to thank our readers today,
Lisa Hartfield & Neil Rhines.

We would also like to thank-

- Damn Yankee's for giving Santa & his reindeer a nice place to stay during their visit to Hortonville today
- the Polar Bear Riders Snowmobile Club of Hortonville for supplying the treat bags for the children
- The Hortonville Fire Department for giving Santa a ride around Hortonville,
- Tom Lambie, Bill Timm, Jim Schultz, Cliff Managan for putting up the lights, board, & decorations
- R & B Roofing for their use of the boom truck to help put up & take down the lights
- and everyone who has supported our event-Thank you

Gone, But Not Forgotten Chairpersons,
Barb Parker & Linda Lambie

Merry Christmas!
