“Gone, but not forgotten, yet we are apart,
Your spirit lives within us, forever in our heart.”

“What the heart has once known, it shall never forget.” ~Author unknown

“All is Well”

by Henry Scott Holland
Public Domain

Death is nothing at all,
I have only slipped into the next room
I am I and you are you
Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.
Call me by my old familiar name,
Speak to me in the easy way which you always used
Put no difference in your tone,
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was,
Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same as it ever was, there is unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near,
Just around the corner.
All is well.

“I Am Standing Upon the Seashore”

by Henry Van Dyke

Public Domain

I am standing upon the seashore.
A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.

She is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch her until at length
she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then, someone at my side says;
"There, she is gone!"

"Gone where?"

Gone from my sight. That is all.
She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.
Her diminished size is in me, not in her.

And just at the moment when someone at my side says, "There, she is gone!"
There are other eyes watching her coming,
and other voices ready to take up the glad shout;
"Here she comes!"

The Jensen, Parker, & Lambie Families

We pray:

Lord, we gather again to ask for your strength to face another Holiday Season without those whom we love so much. Some of us have been coming here for several years, some are feeling the fresh hurt of losing a loved one. We don't understand the tragedy in this world, but we recognize that we need your guidance and strength. We ask that you guide us to make this world a better place and to give empathy to all whom we meet each day. We thank you, Lord, for the many wondrous blessings and miracles that have touched our lives throughout this past year. In the midst of tragedy, we recognize your outreach to us each day that blesses us and keeps us in your care. Amen.

We would like to thank these families for allowing us to share their special poems & prayers with you at our event.

The Commercial Club would like to thank Tracy Schultz, Kelly Retzlaff, & Kathy Ziehl for doing the reading for us today. We would also like to thank Tom Lambie, Bill Timm, & Jim Clegg for help with the tree, decorating the tree and putting up the board, & the Commercial Club members for their support of the playground in the park, and everyone who has supported our event.

Gone, But Not Forgotten Chairpersons,
Barb Parker & Linda Lambie

Merry Christmas!

We appreciate your feedback.

- Please contact Linda Lambie at 920.757.6889 (text or call) or sixlambies@gmail.com anytime.
